The City of Gilroy

The City of Gilroy is ideally situated in south Santa Clara County, 28 miles south of San Jose and 15 miles east of the Pacific Coastline. Gilroy has emerged as a thriving city of almost 60,000 residents, with a healthy economic base consisting of food processing, wine production and retail shopping outlets. Gilroy's economy is diversified into non-agricultural commercial and industrial activities such as light manufacturing, wholesale operations, automobile sales, and large retail centers. The world-famous Silicon Valley, one of the world's most enterprising and technologically advanced metropolitan areas, is located within a 1/2-hour drive north of the city.

Gilroy is best known as the "Garlic Capital of the World." But the City is also known for its peaceful residential environment, its award-winning parks, golf course and recreation programs, and for its "urban forest." The Gilroy community has a remarkable spirit of volunteerism, which has contributed to the city being world renowned for its most famous product, garlic.

A variety of outstanding community facilities and resources have placed Gilroy high in recent surveys, which have attempted to measure the quality of life in Bay Area cities. The St. Louise Regional Hospital provides excellent care. The Gilroy library provides 50,000 square feet of state-of-the-art library services. Gavilan Community College is known for the beauty of its campus, set in the foothills that surround the city. Downtown, new vitality and a healthy respect for history make for a lively and interesting town center. Mature neighborhoods blend with newer homes to create an ambient atmosphere for residential areas, served by nearby schools, parks and churches, and just the right combination of rural and suburban amenities. Nestled between the Diablo and Santa Cruz mountains in the Santa Clara Valley, Gilroy residents enjoy mild temperatures, while missing most of the coastal fog. A state climatology report says up to 70 percent of Gilroy's days are sunny. Gilroy's central location, healthy economy, bucolic charm, and a positive quality of life make it an excellent place to live, play and work.

City Government

The City of Gilroy is a full-service charter city operating under a Council/Administrator form of government.
