

THE CITY OF MODESTO

invites your interest for the position of

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT MANAGER

The Community

The City of Modesto, home to more than 217,000 residents and 13,000 businesses, is the largest city and the county seat of Stanislaus County. Offering year-round mild weather and some of the world's richest soil, the city of "Water, Wealth, Contentment, and Health" - Modesto is a community proud of its vibrant citizenry, abundant traditions, and multicultural lifestyles.

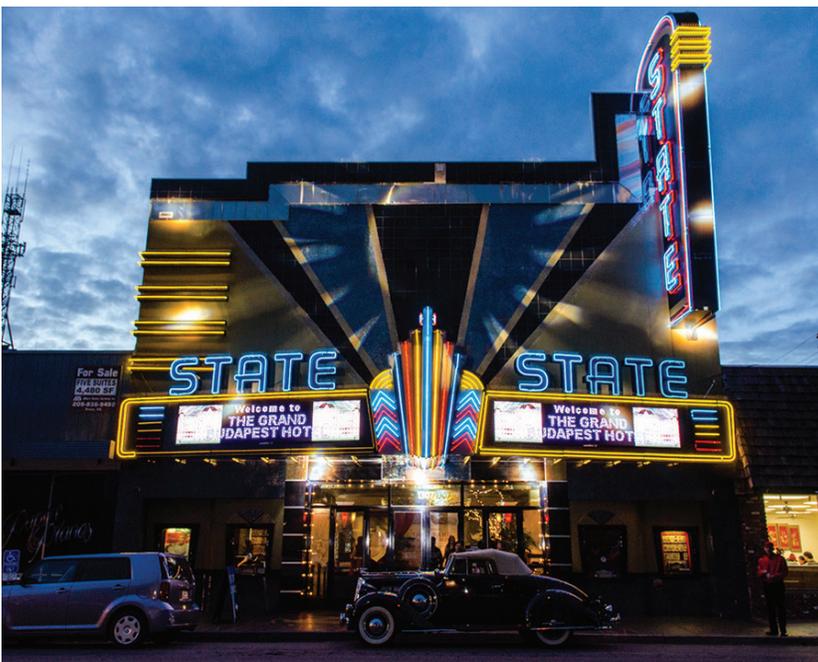

The quality of life in Modesto is one of its most attractive features, offering a multitude of exciting cultural, recreational, and educational opportunities. Many urbanites have relocated to this welcoming community for its variety of amenities, reasonable housing prices, reputable school districts, and protected open spaces. Modesto is frequently cited as an ideal community in which to raise a family.

Modesto has more than 60 recreation areas within the city and is within close proximity to Yosemite National Park, Northern California coastal resort communities, San Francisco, Sacramento, the state's world-famous wine country, and numerous popular venues for outdoor recreation. Winter sport opportunities are also within an easy drive of the city.

Modesto features a classic one-square-mile downtown center and serves as the principal entertainment center for the Central Valley with a variety of venues, including the Gallo Center for the Arts, the Modesto Symphony Orchestra, and a Class A minor league baseball team. The city boasts an outstanding public-school system; for higher educational opportunities, it is home to one of the first established Junior Colleges in California, Modesto Junior College and in near proximity, University of the Pacific and California State University, Stanislaus. University of California, Merced opened in 2005 and is within a 55-minute commute.

Modesto offers the diversity of a metropolitan city yet maintains a small-town atmosphere of hospitality and affordability without the commute or congestion of other urban centers. Agricultural contributions from the local area include almonds, apricots, tomatoes, peaches, walnuts, and poultry products. City of Modesto has something for everyone and offers its own distinct pride and character.

City Government

Modesto is a full-service city that operates under the Council/Manager form of government. The City Council is comprised of a directly elected Mayor and six Council members elected by district. The Mayor and members of the City Council are elected in odd numbered years to alternating four-year terms with a two-term limit. The Council also appoints citizen volunteers to more than 26 City advisory boards, committees, and commissions; and appoints and supervises the performance of the City Manager, City Attorney, City Auditor, and City Clerk.

The City has a FY 2022/23 operating budget of $508 million, 1,235 full-time employees and, depending on the season, up to 500 part-time employees. City departments include Police, Fire, Community and Economic Development, Public Works, Finance, Human Resources, Information Technology, Parks, Recreation, and Neighborhoods and Utilities. The City of Modesto Strategic Plan (2020-2025) is the foundation of the City's efforts and investments for the community. The Plan defines the City's mission, vision, values, goals, objectives, and key performance indicators.

The Position and Ideal Candidate

The Economic Development Manager reports to the Community and Economic Development Director and will be instrumental in facilitating and guiding the burgeoning economic growth and development of the City. This position is highly visibility and high profile with the community, businesses and city council. The division includes a staff of two, a Marketing Specialist and a Senior Business Analyst. The Manager will bring an innovative approach, vision and perspective to positively enhance economic vibrancy for both the city and immediate region.

As a key member of the Department's leadership team, the Economic Development Manager will establish credibility and confidence through a cohesive and collaborative relationship with city management and peers, and the wide array of community partners and businesses in identifying, mobilizing, and coordinating united efforts to drive economic initiatives. This position will require a relationship-based self-starter, with high levels of creativity and energy, an ability to manage multiple priorities in delivering quality results and a hands-on, active operational style. As a tireless advocate and innovative marketer for Modesto, the Manager must be community oriented with excellent communication and presentation skills and possess a high level of political and organizational acumen. The ideal candidate must have a demonstrated commitment to valuing diversity and contributing to inclusive working relationships with community leaders, members of the business community and other constituents.

This position requires a combination of experience and training that provides the required knowledge and abilities to perform this role. This may include a minimum of five years of increasingly responsible administrative experience in community development involving administration, economic development and redevelopment, or a related field, including one year of staff supervisory experience. An equivalent to a Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university with major course work in business/public administration, finance, economics or a related field is also required.

Compensation and Benefits

The City of Modesto offers a competitive salary range of $110,344 - $134,118, which is negotiable and commensurate with the successful candidate's qualifications and experience. The excellent benefits package includes:

- ◆ Public Employees' Retirement System: CalPERS enrollment in the 2%@60 or 2%@62 formula; dependent on eligibility. Employee pays the full member contribution. Retirement benefit is based on the employee's three-year final compensation average.
- ◆ Holidays: 10 paid holidays per year plus 8 hours holiday credit.
- ◆ Management Leave: 80 hours annually.
- ◆ Vacation: Accrue two weeks during the first year of service, increasing to five weeks as your years of service increases.
- ◆ Sick Leave: Accrue 96 hours annually; up to a maximum of 2,200 hours.
- ◆ Medical Insurance: Health, dental and vision coverage is provided. The City's monthly contribution toward these benefits is based on a three-tier system:
 - $ 1635.00 Employee + Family
 - $ 1157.00 Employee + 1 Dependent
 - $ 648.00 Employee Only
 - $ 450.00 Opt OutCash in-lieu is offered to those employees who opt out of healthcare coverage based on identified criteria.
- ◆ Deferred Compensation: With a matching contribution by the employee, the City will contribute 1.5% of salary, increasing to 2.5% at 9+ years of service, to a voluntary 457 Plan.
- ◆ Retiree Health Savings Account (RHS): $2,400 initial deposit provided upon completion of a two (2) year vesting period, after initial contribution is made, the City contributes $100 per month.
- ◆ Life Insurance: Coverage in the amount of $120,000 is provided by the City. Supplemental coverage is available at employee cost.
- ◆ Disability Insurance: Coverage is provided by the City, at City cost. This benefit pays 66 2/3% of the first $12,000 per month in salary.
- ◆ Educational Incentive: Candidates that possess a Master's Degree, or Juris Doctorate, from an accredited college will receive an incentive of 2.5%.
- ◆ Bilingual Incentive Leave: Employees who pass a review panel and are needed in this capacity by the department, will receive 3 hours of Bilingual Leave Time per pay period into their Compensatory Time Off (CTO) balance.
- ◆ Section 125 Plan: Provides for pre-tax deductions for employee-paid health premium and dependent care costs.
- ◆ The City does not participate in Social Security except for the required 1.45% Medicare contribution by both the City and the employee.

City of Modesto is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to fostering, cultivating and preserving a culture of diversity, equity and inclusion.
