invites your interest for the position of

City Attorney

The Community of Lodi

The historic, charming, and unique City of Lodi is home to over 67,000 residents. Lodi is ideally located adjacent to Highway 99 and I-5, 34 miles south of Sacramento, two miles north of Stockton, and 90 miles east of San Francisco. The residents of Lodi take immense pride in their community that is surrounded by lush parks, wineries, museums, a lake, and open space. The city is committed to quality growth while striving to protect its historical, small-town ambiance through an annual growth management program. Lodi is home to several large manufacturing, general services, and agriculturally based companies, and it has an excellent balance of jobs to residential housing units.

A revitalized downtown boasts unique shops, fine restaurants, and a movie theater. Lodi is known for its authentic wine region heritage with over 85 wineries in the greater Lodi region. Housing is also relatively affordable. Educational opportunities abound as University of the Pacific, California State University-Stanislaus/Turlock/Stockton Center, San Joaquin Delta Community College, and the University of San Francisco satellite center are all within a 20-minute drive of the city. Lodi is also a safe city as crime rates are low and community pride reigns high, reflecting active community involvement and a strong public safety structure. By all measures, the quality of life in the City of Lodi is exceptional and provides an ideal location in which to live, work and play.

City Government and the Office of the City Attorney

Lodi incorporated as a General Law City in 1906 and operates with a Council/Manager form of government. The City Council governs the city and is comprised of five members who are elected to alternating four-year terms.

Lodi is a complex, full-service city operation that includes a power utility; Hutchins Street Square, a stunning, 90,000-square foot performing arts, conference and community center; and Lodi Lake, a self-contained recreational enterprise; along with other municipal services including police, fire, public works and utilities (streets, transportation, water and wastewater), community development and leisure/social services. Lodi has a dedicated workforce that is approved for 450 employees with a FY 2023-24 all funds budget of over $280 million including a General Fund of more than $80 million.

The City Attorney's office will operate on a FY 2023-24 budget of $1.152 million which includes a staffing level of 6 FTEs including the City Attorney, an Assistant City Attorney, a Deputy City Attorney, and two half time administration support along with two Risk Management staff.

The Position and Ideal Candidate

The City Attorney is the Chief Legal Officer for the City and is appointed by the City Council.

As a key member of the City Management Team, the City Attorney works cohesively and collaboratively with the city organization in overseeing all city legal activities including civil and criminal litigation, and transactional advice and counsel. The department also administers the Risk Management function for the city and staff's city commissions as needed. The mission of the City Attorney is to contribute to the success of the City by delivering high-quality legal counsel, representation, and effective solutions with professionalism and integrity.

In providing the City legal services, The City Attorney's Office advises the City Council and its boards and commissions; prepares and reviews ordinances, resolutions, contracts, and other legal documents; prosecutes violations of the Lodi Municipal Code; and represents the city in litigation. The City Attorney's Office also oversees the Risk Management function for the city which includes the Workers' Compensation program, General Liability, and Property Insurance. Among the key priorities for the office are issues and challenges involving homelessness, affordable housing, land use and planning, and economic development. While much of the role involves transactional activity, the City Attorney will also oversee litigation efforts that are handled both in-house and with contract counsel.

The nature of this City Attorney role will require a hands-on and seasoned generalist with a solid transactional background and experience handling and overseeing litigation. A strong customer service orientation is needed in providing responsive and expedient legal guidance to the City Council and city organization. Expertise in the areas of land use/development, contracts, and general administration is required along with an ability to effectively work and communicate with policy makers, city staff, and community members. Innovative problem solving with the ability to provide excellent counsel and as necessary, alternative approaches to complex legal issues will be essential in this role.

The ideal candidate will be committed to the city and passionate in providing exceptional service to the constituent community. The City Attorney will be readily accessible, highly adaptable, flexible, and politically astute in dealing with the expectations of city government today. Excellent communication and listening skills are expected with an operational style that incorporates high levels of teamwork and collaboration is expected.

The successful candidate will have a minimum of seven (7) years' experience in the active practice of law in the State of California including at least two of those years in a management, supervisory, or lead capacity. A Juris Doctorate degree from a law school accredited by the American Bar Association or the California Bar Association is required along with membership in good standing with the California State Bar Association. Any combination equivalent to experience and education that would likely provide the required knowledge, abilities, and skills will be qualifying.

Compensation and Benefits
